THIRTEEN FRENCH SOLDIERS KILLED DURING COMBAT IN MALI DUE TO HELICOPTERS CRASH

THEY WERE ENROLLED IN OPERATION BARKHANE

Paris, Washington DC, 28.11.2019, 02:28 Time

USPA NEWS - The military died Monday night during a combat operation, following the accident in flight of two helicopters of the Army engaged in Operation Barkhane. "I learned with deep sadness that 13 soldiers of Operation Barkhane were killed yesterday evening, Monday, November 25, 2019, during the flight accident of two helicopters of the Army in Mali, during a combat operation," said Florence Parly, Minister of the Armed Forces, in a press release issued Tuesday morning. An investigation is opened to determine the exact circumstances of this tragedy. "This terrible news puts our armies, the defense community and France all together. I want to assure bereaved families that the military institution is with them in this ordeal," added the Minister. The Ministry of the Armies joins with it to offer its condolences to their families, their relatives and their brothers in arms.
